SELF-DECLARATION

Rehabilitation of offenders Act 1974/Safeguarding vulnerable groups

- A. If the role for which you are applying is not exempt from the Rehabilitation of offenders Act 1974, you only need to provide details about previous convictions and cautions which are unspent.
- B. If the position for which you are applying may involve contact with vulnerable groups, it is exempt from the Rehabilitation of offenders Act 1974 and all subsequent amendments (England and Wales). For these positions you are not entitled to withhold information about Police cautions, bind-overs, or any criminal convictions, including any that would be considered 'spent' under the act.

Please note that if your application is successful and you will have direct contact with children and or adults at risk, you will be required to obtain a DBS disclosure at the appropriate level.

Do you have any unspent convictions or cautions? If yes, please provide full details.
Have you ever been charged, convicted or cautioned of any criminal offence? If yes, please provide full details.
Are you currently the subject of any on-going criminal investigations or awaiting the outcome of any charges pending against you? If yes, please provide full details.
Are you currently the subject of any on-going local authority/civil or family court proceedings or awaiting the outcome of any such proceedings? If yes, please provide full details.
Are you a person who has been, or currently barred from working with children or other vulnerable groups? If yes, please provide full details.

I certify that the information supplied in this application and an associated attachment is complete and accurate and that I have not knowingly withheld information that might adversely affect my chances of working for Crystal Palace Football Club (the Club).

I understand that any failure to disclose information, or any attempt to mislead the Club could result in the withdrawal of any offer of appointment, or lead to disciplinary action being taken, including dismissal, and possible criminal action prosecution.

I authorise the Club to investigate my references, work records, education criminal background and other matters relating to the suitability of me working for the Club. In accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998, I agree that the Club may hold and use personal information about me and keep in touch with me should suitable vacancies come available in the future. This information, including that contained in the form, can be stored on both manual and computer files. It will be held securely and only accessed by authorised personnel.

I can confirm that I have read and understood the above declaration, and agree to the Club holding and processing this information.

Crystal Palace Football Club is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all such sections of the community. The Equality policy can be viewed on the club website.
